19th September 2022

F2F

Human interaction centered

VIRTUAL

Freed from the frame
of time and space

BLENDED

Best of both!

Blended learning

While students still attend a class with a teacher present, face-to-face classroom practices are combined with computer-mediated-activities regarding content and delivery.

Online tools in F2F teaching

PROS

Student centred
More dynamic
Saves time to teachers
Less effort in the end

STUDENTS LOVE IT!

CONS

Sharing control of the process
New skills to develop
Time to adjust
Lots of effort in the beginning

NEW STUFF TO LEARN!

Fact!

Implementation of online tools to F2F teaching is an adaptation
to the needs of students.

Fact!

it makes them happy
i.e.
it makes us happy

ONLINE TOOLS!

- available on line
- completely free
- low technology support needed
- easy to use
- student centred
- dynamic
- interactive
- save time
- save effort

The background is a light teal color with soft, darker teal wavy shapes. In the top left is a closed blue book with a white rectangular label on its cover. In the top right is a stylized atom with three red elliptical orbits and three colored spheres (blue, dark blue, and red) representing electrons. In the bottom left is an open book with white pages and red horizontal lines, with a red sphere resting on its left page. In the bottom right is a closed red book with a white rectangular label on its cover. A dark blue sphere is positioned near the top right corner of the central white text box.

BEFORE YOU START USING THE ONLINE TOOLS ...

LEARN HOW TO USE THEM

LEARN WHEN TO USE THEM

“Everyone who remembers his own education remembers teachers, not methods and techniques.

The teacher is the heart of the education process.”

Sidney Hook

The tools are just spices!

Where to use online tools?
